Position Description and Duties:

GENERAL DUTIES

Performs teaching, research, and guidance duties in area(s) of expertise as noted below. Shares responsibility for committee and department assignments, performing administrative, supervisory, and other functions as may be assigned.

The College's Department of Public Management houses the undergraduate Public Administration and Criminal Justice Management majors. Public Management Department faculty also teach in the College's NASPAA-accredited and nationally-ranked MPA Programs in Public Policy and Administration and in Inspection and Oversight.

John Jay College of Criminal Justice is internationally recognized for its education and research in criminal justice. It is a public liberal arts college with a specialized mission in criminal justice, forensic studies, public service and related areas. Located steps from Lincoln Center at the cultural heart of New York City, the College offers bachelors and masters degrees and participates in the doctoral programs of the Graduate School of the City University of New York. John Jay College is also recognized for serving a broadly diverse student population. Under the leadership of its fourth president, Jeremy Travis, John Jay College is undergoing a transformation that includes an all-baccalaureate program, new undergraduate majors and masters programs, and a new 600,000 square foot building ready for occupancy in 2011. As evidenced by so many on-going developments, the College offers its many new faculty and staff the opportunity to shape the future of their institution.
